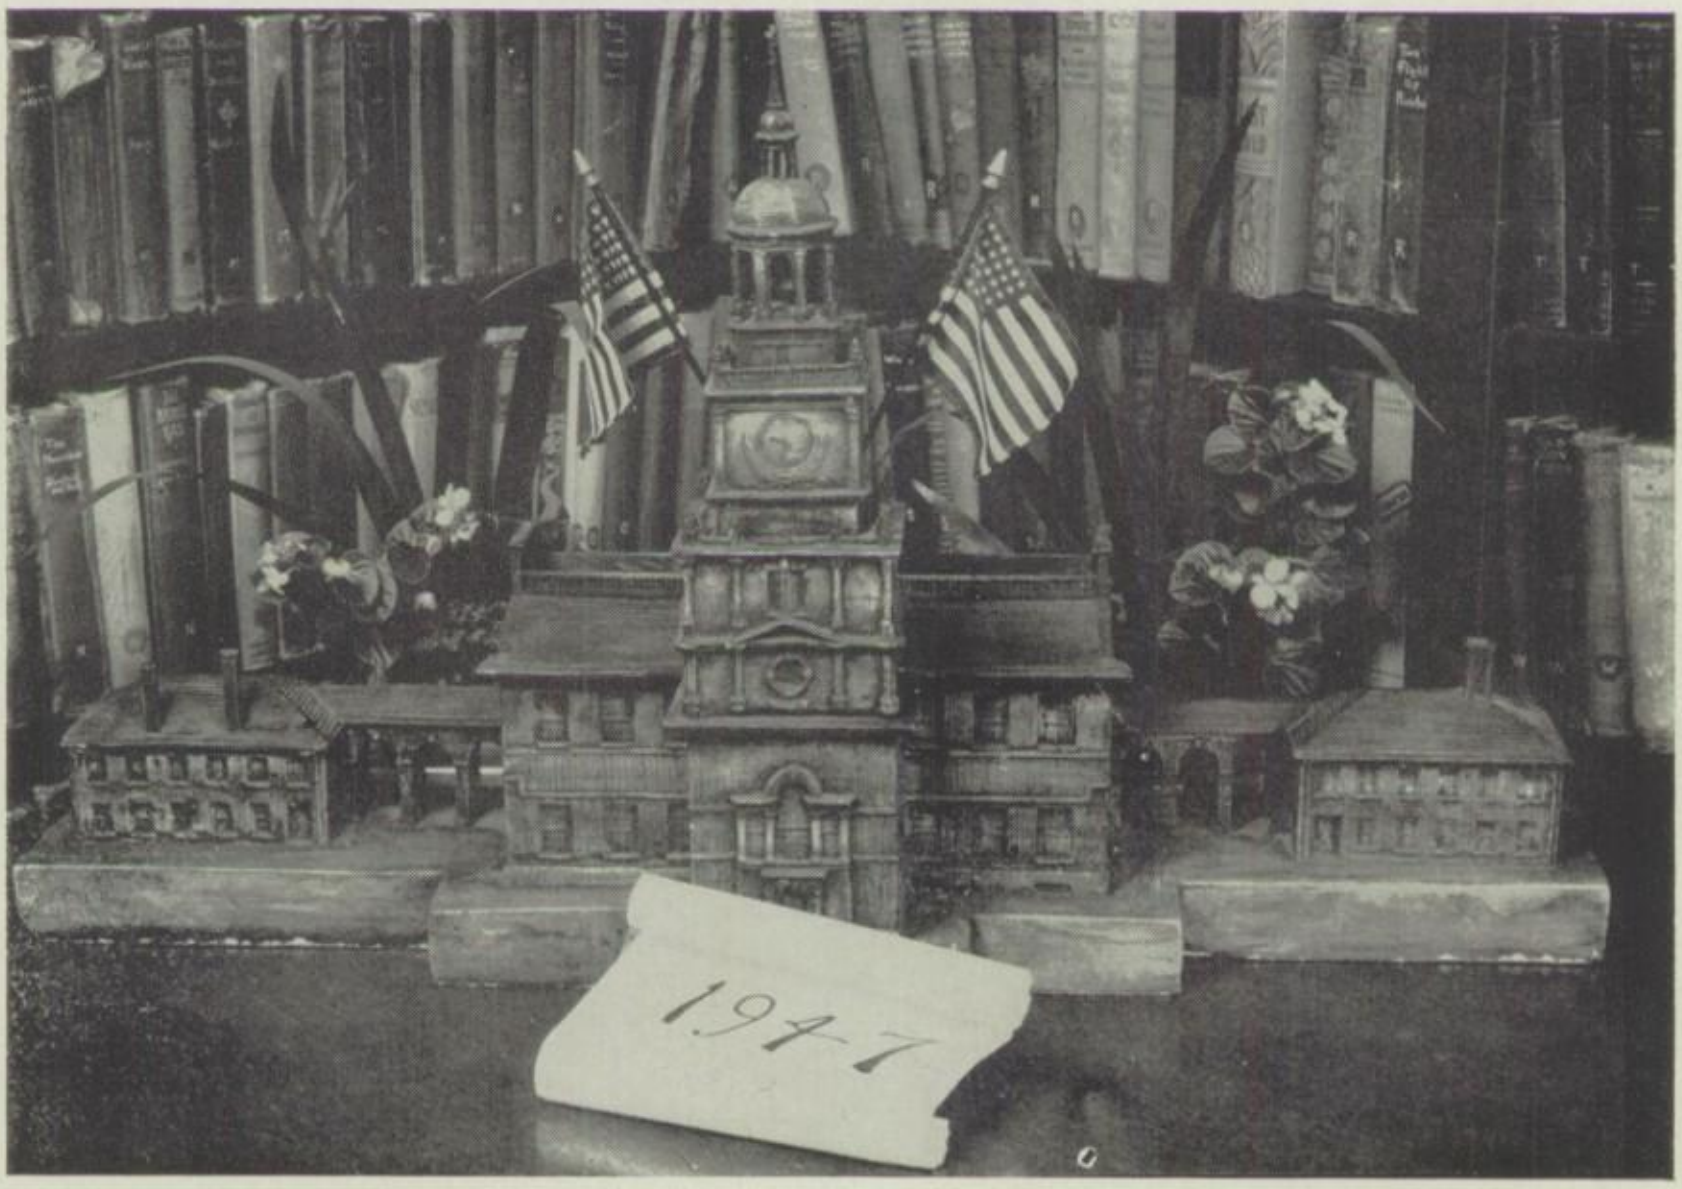
Foreword



"When I consider Life and its few years—
A wisp of fog betwixt us and the sun;
A call to battle, and the battle done
Ere the last echo dies within our ears."

—Lizette Woodworth Reese

Dedication

Again a group of ambitious students come to the end of their high school days and step into the world to build a successful life upon their talents and knowledge. Whatever we, as graduates, do, we realize how much our teachers have come to the aid of all, not only in the dispersing of knowledge and the development of personalities, but in many varied ways which will enable us to succeed.

We, the Class of 1947, take this opportunity to express our deepest feelings and gratitude to our newfound friend and counsellor, Mr. John T. Auld, Supervising Principal. For his helpful guidance during our Senior year, we will eternally be grateful. Although he has been with us only this short time, he has ably helped us to deal with many difficult problems. It is in sincere appreciation of all his efforts and his constant interest in trying to make us better citizens, not only of the school but the community as well, that we dedicate this issue of The Leoninus.

Board of Education

Mr. H. Earle Wright ..... President

Dr. Wilson A. Foust ..... Vice President

Mr. John H. Martin ..... Secretary

Mr. Henry R. Fenninger ..... Treasurer

Mr. J. Maurice Smith

* * * * *

During the twelve years of our schooling everyone has certainly noticed and appreciated the work and careful planning done by the Board of Education. Many troubles and problems have arisen during our school days, which we would never have been able to solve without the help of this official body.

These five prominent leaders of our community have worked unselfishly and without thought of remuneration, solely for the betterment of our school. Many examples of their efforts can be seen and felt in our daily school experiences.

We, of the Class of 1947, hereby wish to express our gratitude to the Board of Education for the enriched school facilities which they have made possible for us during our past twelve years.

Without haste! Without rest!
Bind thy motto to thy breast!
Bear it with thee as a spell;
Storm or sunshine, guard it well.
Haste not, Rest not.

MARY ELLEN BRENDLE

June 11, 1929 "Bren"

Track (1); Soccer (1,4); Glee Club (1,2,3,4).

Mary Ellen is one of the most reserved girls in our class. She was born in Fivepointville, and later moved to Martindale. In our ninth year, many students came to the New Holland School, but none quite like Mary Ellen. A bright smile and a cheery personality are two of her outstanding characteristics. Always ready to lend a helping hand, Brendle served on the scenery committee for the Senior Play.

Soccer and track were Mary Ellen's outstanding abilities in the athletic field. She has decided as to her future, and we know she will be successful because of her patience and willingness to help other people. To become a private secretary is one of her main ambitions.

When those cold winter months roll around, Ellen can be found ice-skating to her heart's content on the local pond.

As far as the opposite sex goes, Brendle plays the safe side by showing no partiality.

Whatever Mary Ellen chooses to do, we know that her friendly manner will continue to be an asset.

DOROTHY LOUISE BROWN

September 15, 1929 "Dot"

Quill & Scroll (4); Senior Play (4); Class Secretary (3,4); G.A.A. (3,4); President of G.A.A. (4); Patrol (1,2); T.C.N. Business Staff (3,4); Office Secretary (4); Senior Trio (4); Hockey (1); Soccer (1,2,3,4); Basketball (1,2,3,4); Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Band (2,3); Orchestra (2,3).

Here's to the clown of the class! We could always count on Dot for some witty remark during one of our boring periods. Can't you just hear that infectious giggle right this minute? Wherever a gang is located, Brown's likely to be present, adding jokes of her own.

Who's that blonde "flash" on the gym floor? Yes, there she goes, tearing from her forward to again secure the ball for the Seniors. Dot is popular with everyone, and her activities are varied. If she is not cheering for our team, or ringing buzzers, she is "cutting a rug" to snappy dance tunes.

Perhaps "Brown" will become a secretary, but we believe she will settle for that "little dream cottage with the white picket fence." Her personality will make her successful.

EVELYN ELIZABETH DIEM

July 8, 1928 "Evie"

Salisbury: Glee Club (1,2,3); Pianist (1,2,3); Volley Ball (1,2,3).

Jolly, dark-haired Evelyn Diem is our class example of the old adage "often seen but seldom heard." She always greets us with her pleasant smile. Evelyn is ready for fun and enjoys good jokes. Joining us in our senior year, Evelyn came from Salisbury Township, and is completing her fourth year of high school in New Holland.

Her favorite hobby is cooking, but she also enjoys hiking, literature, the radio, typing, and as we have come to know her better, we find she is quite a talker.

Evelyn plans to be a first-rate bookkeeper, and is well assured of her future in this field for each afternoon and each Saturday she is doing a wonderful job as bookkeeper for Snavely's Farm Service in New Holland. Here's wishing her a very successful future in whatever phase of life you encounter.

RICHARD WILLIAM EABY

February 23, 1930 "Achimeaby"

Class Treasurer (4); Glee Club (2,3,4); Track (2, 3,4); Yearbook Staff (4); Soccer (3); Basketball (2).

"Archimeaby" is the "brain" of our class. Be it a problem on square root, logarithms or balancing equations, never fear, for "Rich" can solve it in a short time. Mathematics, however, do not stand in full possession of Eaby's interests, for ever since he was "so big," Richard has gotten a kick out of tinkering around with anything mechanical. He also enjoys as his favorite sports both soccer and track and many of us remember those gay rides we had enroute to baseball games in the "Silver Streak" with "Archie" at the wheel.

Along with these activities Richard has aided in the handling of our lighting problems for the Junior-Senior Reception, and, during his last year in high school, he served as treasurer of the senior class.

Eaby's plans for college are not definite as yet, but he is aiming toward an engineering course that will offer him a promising future.

JOHN ISAAC EBY

May 31, 1928 "John"

Salisbury: Basketball (1,2,3); Baseball (1,2,3); Glee Club (1,2,3); Play (2,3); Salisbury Highlights (2,-3); Yearbook Staff (3); Vice President (1,2,3); New Holland: Glee Club (4) Soccer (4); Baseball (4); Track (4).

Tall, blonde, good-looking John takes the fancy of the girls of N.H.H.S. This "glamour boy" joined us in our senior year. He came from Salisbury Township, and is completing his fourth year of high school here. John is carefree and jolly, but is always willing to lend a helping hand to anyone.

John likes all types of sports. Around home he enjoys hunting; in school any form of activity takes his eye, and his abilities were well displayed as the star fullback on our championship soccer team. Aside from these, he likes ice-skating and roller-skating, which take a great deal of his leisure time. The future is rather hazy as yet for John, and, although he is a well experienced farmer, and has received numerous 4-H awards, he does not think this will be his vocation.

Here's wishing him a very prosperous and successful future.

NORMA LOU EBY

December 10, 1929 "Eby"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Band (1,2,3,4); Orchestra (1,2,3,4); Patrol (1,2); G.A.A. (3); Cheerleading (1,2,-3,4); Basketball Manager (4); Soccer (1,2,3,4); Class President (2); Yearbook Staff (4); Senior Play (4).

"Hey, Eby!" That has been the favorite expression heard around the school since our class entered first grade. Her outstanding qualities of neatness, "love for laughter" and dependibility have made her a friend to all and an efficient commercial student. She very capably played the part of "Maude," an eccentric middle-aged woman in the senior play. Cheerleading has claimed a great part in her high school career, as well as manager of the girls' basketball team.

Norma Lou plans to work at the New Holland Machine Company after graduation. You might ask "Goodie" her plans for the future. She is often heard voicing her opinion on some current problem or arguing cheerfully with her friends about the latest social affairs. No matter what the future holds for Norma Lou, we're sure that the outstanding qualities we have found in her will lead to her success.

PATRICIA LOUISE FRITZ

June 10, 1929 "Fritz"

School Pianist (1,2,3,4); Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Orchestra (4); T.C.N. (4); Yearbook Staff (4); G.A.A. (3); Class Secretary (2); Senior Trio (4).

Abandoning Terre Hill, "Pat" adopted New Holland High as her Alma Mater in ninth grade, and since that time has proved a valuable asset to our school. Centering her extra curricular work on music, she participates in all phases of that field. She has served as school pianist for a number of years, playing the accompaniment for the Glee Club and for assembly programs.

Fritz is the lilting soprano of the Senior Trio. She doesn't plan to make music her career, since the nursing profession seems to have caught her eye. Her name appears regularly on the first honor roll. "Pat" aired some of her brilliant views as a member of the debating squad when they spoke before the student body and the Rotary Club. She ably displayed her talent for leadership as head of the ushers for the senior play. We have appreciated her splendid cooperation in so many school activities, and "Pat" leaves an enviable record in the halls of her Alma Mater.

RUSSELL L. GEHMAN

March 22, 1929 "Russ"

Soccer (2,3,4); Soccer Captain (4); Baseball (2,3); Track (2); Glee Club (2,3,4).

The girls all swooned, "especially one," when "Russ" came from Greenbank to the ninth grade of old N.H.H.S.

Having great abilities in sports, Gehman played third base on the baseball team, and a fast, driving line position on the soccer squad of which he was captain during his senior year. He has often stated that he'd rather play baseball than eat . . . and Gehman's stomach has an amazing capacity!

"Russ's" friendly grin beneath his dark eyes is a well known sight about the school. He is well liked by everyone and has many friends, both male and female. He enjoys singing and he participates as a member of the Glee Club.

Most of his leisure hours are spent working, or at the home of a certain "special" young lady. His future is definitely undecided, although he does have a few prospective interests in view. But whatever he may do and wherever he may go, the friendship of his classmates will follow him.

ELIZABETH LOUISE HARTMAN

October 1, 1929 "Hartman"

Pittsburgh: Honor Society (1); G.A.A. (1); Glee Club (1); Student Council Officer (1); Cheerleading (1). New Holland: Glee Club (2,3,4); Soccer (2,3,4); Track Manager (3); T.C.N. (2,3,4); Associate Editor of T.C.N. (4); Quill & Scroll (4); Senior Play (4); Basketball (2).

In 1944, the city of Pittsburgh sent its first class ambassador in metropolitan charm and poise to New Holland. Since that time "Hartman" has quietly, and, in a most dignified fashion, assumed her position as one of the leaders of our student body. No dance or social affair would be complete without her vim and wit.

Betty is associate editor of T.C.N., and a member of the Quill & Scroll Society. She has taken advantage of all the journalistic opportunities offered in high school. She was a hit as the satirist in our senior play. Loquatious but fluent, Betty put her speaking talents to work in the Problems of Democracy Class debate. Advertising intrigues her as a career, and she plans to further her education at Drexel Institute.

IDA NELLIE HEPNER

June 28, 1929 "Hep"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Yearbook Staff (4).

This petite titian-haired gal came to New Holland from Pottstown. She entered our class in the Sophomore year and 'twas then we learned of her artistic ability. We could always depend on Ida for posters needed throughout the years.

Although "Hep" has never been one of the most talkative Seniors, her pleasant smile and ready grin speak well for this lassie. One of her favorite pastimes is eating, but strange as it may seem, she still is able to retain her girlish figure.

Since Ida's interest seldom ventures toward the opposite sex, her main attractions are reading and sports.

As to her future plans, nothing definite has been decided. Nevertheless, we all agree that she should further her art career. We will always remember Ida's sincerity and conscientiousness, and we know that these qualities will be as noticeable in her after-school life.

EMMA BENDER HESS

October 3, 1929 "Emma"

Glee Club (1,3,4); Cafeteria (1,2,3,4); School Treasurer (4).

Need a check cashed? Emma's your gal! Her signature has enabled school accounts to be handled quickly and efficiently. When the time rolls around for the books to be balanced, the adding machine surely gets a work-out. After many laborious hours, the accounts come out right.

"How about going to the game tonight?" "Okay, I'll see if I can get the car," answers Emma. And at game time her voice rings out with a "Yea Team!" She certainly is an asset to the cheering section.

What would our class do without Emma to plan the refreshments? Her excellent taste and ability to budget certainly keeps the class in amazement. She'll make some lucky man a wonderful wife.

The future holds a great deal in store for Emma. Her commercial practice has shown her adaptability to secretarial work and yet we know she would be a grand housewife.

JUNE PHYLLIS HILLARD

June 5, 1929 "Hillard"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Soccer (1,2,4).

June is that quiet and reserved young lady from Greenbank. She has a happy disposition and pleasing smile to accompany it. Her gracious manner has won her many friends. She is one of the few who know the meaning of friendship and one to whom you can always tell your troubles. June's laugh is familiar to all of us, and is typical of her happy-go-lucky personality. She is quite energetic and her name has appeared on the honor roll several times this year.

Her favorite pastimes are reading, going to basketball games, and she enjoys that good Lancaster County food. Her leisure time is spent in playing the piano, and her greatest ambition is to get married and raise a family.

June is always willing to do anything asked of her, and we predict that with that pleasing smile and jolly disposition, she will really go places in life.

ARLENE MAE HORST

November 30, 1929 "Horstie"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Student Librarian (3,4).

"Where can I find information on language?" "What new books have arrived lately?" Those are a few of the questions Arlene hears day after day. Yet she handles each with a pleasant answer. For two years the school library has claimed her as its very own, and never once has she complained about the work. Freshmen and seniors alike depend on her for a "quick find." The school will certainly miss her next year.

Her soprano voice was a part of the glee club ever since her arrival in ninth grade. Although her time is limited, "Horstie" always enjoys a good game of volley ball.

Giggles, emerging from the back of the room, tell us Arlene and her "gang" are enjoying some gossip. As both seamstress and cook she is quite handy.

"Horstie" has chosen the commercial field for her career in the future, and we all know she will be a great success.

JULIA ANN HORST

July 26, 1929 "Julia"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4).

"Brighten the corner where you are" certainly seems to be Julia's daily motto, as she wanders through the halls of our Alma Mater, for she can invariably be found smiling cheerily no matter how complicated things may seem.

Entering New Holland as a lowly Freshman, "Julia" has proved to be a most worthy and loyal member of our class. No matter whether it be soccer, baseball, or basketball she is right there to lend a ready yell for our fighting teams. We wonder where she and "the gang" are scouting every noon! Take it from us, that family car really goes places!

We'll always remember "Julia" for her cooperation in everything asked of her, no matter how small. Acquiring her ABC's of typing and shorthand. "Julia's" neatness will further her considerably in this field. As far as post-graduate plans are concerned, she remains undecided at present. Here's best wishes to one swell classmate and friend.

KATHRYN ROSENE HOWE

March 14, 1930 "Rosene"

Track (2,3,4); Soccer (2,3,4); Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Basketball (2,3).

Rosene has been a member of our class since elementary school. Although she appears shy and quiet on the surface, underneath we find an unusual and valued personality. She is one of those energetic commercial students, who always seems to devote a great deal of her time studying.

Rosene is quite an athlete, and she goes in for most sports, although baseball does not appeal to her. Her favorite pastime is collecting photos of her many friends. Rosene is quite a cooperative student, and you can be sure she is at the basketball or soccer games cheering for our boys.

As a commercial student, Rosene does quite well at the typewriter, and it was through this ability that she received a position in the Stenographic Department of the New Holland Machine Company. At the present she is working there after school hours, and she expects to continue this type of work when school is over.

BETTY MABEL JACOBY

July 14, 1929 "Betty"

Band (1,2,3,4); Orchestra (1,2,3,4); Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Track (3); Basketball (1,2); Soccer (1,2,3,4); Cheerleading (1); Yearbook Staff (4); Senior Play (4); G.A.A. (4); Patrol (1,2).

"Jacoby" could be that tiny-featured miss who can be seen diligently "plugging away" at a local switchboard? Her pleasant "number, please," rings over the wires with a genial sound.

As "Verona" in the senior play, she demonstrated with success her dramatic ability. But Betty's happiest moments are beneath a moonlit sky in the company of her dashing "Romeo."

"Pass it to Betty! Another goal!" These are familiar shouts coming from the sidelines and from the rest of the girls as the girls' soccer team goes struggling on toward another victory.

Even though her goal in life had at one time centered about nursing, we feel sure that marriage will be a stronger influence in this young lady's future years.

No matter what career "Jacoby" decides to take up, we are confident that she will come out on top.

CLARENCE BRINTON KEENAN

December 23, 1929 "Brit"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Baseball (2,4); Soccer (2,3,4); Basketball (3,4).

A noted physical characteristic of this young man is a pair of very long legs which have sent him towering high above most of his classmates. "Brit" was one of the group of students that joined our class in ninth grade. His first eight years of schooling were acquired at Goodville, and although at first rather shy, he readily adapted himself to new friends and surroundings.

We have learned to anticipate during these past several years, that hearty "Ho Ho" uttered by "Keenan" after an extra special joke has been sprung. Playing basketball occupies most of his spare time and that which is left is usually divided between movies and an occasional dance. Girls, at the present time, don't figure in Keenan's thinking too much, but then, you never can tell about tomorrow!

As far as the future is concerned, "Brit" is pretty uncertain. However, for the time being, he will probably continue working on his neighbor's farm, a job he has held for several summers.

NORMAN BLAIR KOCHEL

September 17, 1929 "Skinnie"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Patrol (1,2); Track (2,3,4); T.C.N., Business Staff (2,3).

Did you hear a corny joke? That must be, and is, Kochel, the boy with that great sense of humor. His hearty laugh was heard throughout the school from first to twelfth grade. Although "Norm" usually seeks the lighter side of life, he is a very serious thinker when discussing some subject of deep interest. Never outdone in a witty conversation, Kochel is always ready with a quick reply.

Working at Groff's and just "Tearin' around town," as he would put it, takes up most of "Kochel's" spare time. "Skinhead," as he is known because of his short haircuts, is a great lover of sports and can often be seen participating in intramural games. Hunting, when in season, is another of his favorite occupations. In the lower grades, Norman's main ambition was to be a truck driver, but he is not quite sure of his future work at present.

The class of 1947 will remember Norman as "a swell guy" and a jolly classmate.

RICHARD IRWIN KRICK

August 31, 1928 "Dick"

Patrol (1,2,3,4); Patrol Captain (4); Basketball (2); Sports Manager (3); Track (2,4); Band (1,2,3,4); Orchestra (1,2,3,4); Glee Club (1,2,3,4).

This energentic lad joined our class early in his school career. He has been endowed with the abilities of a chemist and an electrician. It is to "Krick," to whom we owe considerable gratitude for the success of our senior play since he supervised the lighting effects quite capably and assisted the scenery committee as well.

As captain of the school patrol, together with his varied school interests, he was certainly busy much of the time. Nevertheless, "Dick" is always willing to further his interests in the numerous sports since he proved his abilities in basketball, track and served as sports manager in his junior year.

This all around lad is also musically inclined, for he has contributed his extensive talents to band, orchestra, and glee club. As for the future, we know "Krick" will succeed, for there are many opportunities where abilities are as mumerous as his.

JAMES TODD LAMMEY

August 2, 1929 "Lammey"

Soccer (3); Track (3,4); Band (1,2,3,4); Orchestra (1,2,3,4); T.C.N. (2,3,4); Quill & Scroll (4); Patrol (1,2); Glee Club (1,4); Class President (3); Yearbook Editor (4); Senior Play (4).

From our very first day of school, Jim's red locks have added that needed touch of color to our class. Not only his hair, but his wit and humor have also been an asset to all who have known him.

Lammey has shown his ability as a leader, when he held the offices of President of the class during the junior year, and of Editor-in-Chief of the Yearbook Staff during this last year. Music occupies a large place in "Jimmy's" heart. You can always depend upon him to remember the name of "that song" you just can't seem to recall. He also takes pride in his clarinet, which he plays in the band.

Track is Lammey's favorite sport, followed by soccer. Although he has no definite plans for the future, we all feel that his accomplishments will be of great renown.

HAROLD HAMILTON LANDIS

October 4, 1929 "Had"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Band (2,3,4); Orchestra (2,3,4); Film Staff (1,2); Basketball (3,4); Soccer (4); Track (3,4); Yearbook Staff (4); Class Treasurer (3); Vice President (1,2); Quartet (4).

"Had" is one of our out-of-town students who commutes from Groffdale. Starting his New Holland education as a freshman, it didn't take "Landis" long to acquaint himself and establish his station as a top honor student. Also as an active participant in extra curricular work, "Had" took glee club four years and made the senior quartet, rounding out his musical career by playing the clarinet in the band and orchestra.

As for sports, Harold likes them all, and has a well-filled athletic curriculum. He has held a number of class offices, among them that of treasurer, where he proved himself quite a financial whizz. This talent won him a number of important committee positions, including chairmanship of the group handling the finances of the senior play. He was also a tireless worker as a member of the film staff. His hearty laugh will surely win him many friends.

JUNE LAVERNE LANDIS

June 18, 1929 "Landis"

Basketball (2); Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Track (2,3,4); Soccer (3,4); Drum Majorette (4); Patrol (2,3,4); Co-Captain of Patrol (4); Yearbook Staff (4); G.A.A. (3,4); Prompter of Senior Play (4).

This young lady needs no introduction, since she, as we all know, is our snappy drum majorette. Laverne is a girl with that rare combination of beauty and brains. She has proved herself to be a great scholar, and as the result, her name has been appearing on the honor rolls.

She likes sports, and one of her hobbies is the reading of good books. Oh, yes! Her main interest is centered around Narvon. Laverne has served faithfully on the patrol and is always eager to do that which is asked of her. She likes music very much as is a valuable asset to the Glee Club.

Many times after school we have seen Laverne in Room 3, training some of the girls in the Elementary and Junior High School to handle the baton as skillfully as she does. Laverne has no definite plans for the future, but her one hope is to establish a home of her own.

ROBERT MARTIN MAST

January 25, 1929 "Bob"

Salisbury: Glee Club (1,2,3); Play (2,3); Baseball (2,3); New Holland: Glee Club (4); Baseball (4).

Bob is a jolly boy who loves to tell jokes and have a good laugh. Joining us in our senior year, Bob came from Salisbury Township, and is completing his high school course here. He is always willing and ready to help anyone. This is one of the many fine qualities of this tall, brown-haired and gray-eyed boy.

"Bob" likes any type of sports, but around home, horseback riding and hunting take up a great deal of his time, with listening to classical music, as a phase of relaxation, running a close third. He also enjoys baseball.

The future of this energentic young man is almost certain, as Bob plans to be another famous Lancaster County farmer, producing the food for this world, as his family has been doing for a long time. The many 4-H awards in Bob's possession almost assure him of the well-wished success in store for him in this field.

ED MERSKY

February 17, 1930 "Ed"

Senior Play (4); Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Band (1,2); Orchestra (1,2); Soccer (2,3,4); Baseball (1,3,4); Soccer Captain (3); Basketball (2,3,4); Basketball Captain (4); Quartet (3).

Tall, dark and attractive, "Ed" undoubtedly walks away with the sports honors of the class. He has been active in every phase of sports. He has been very outstanding on every team in which he participated, and took part in four county championship teams.

Being very scholarly, "Ed" constantly makes the first honor roll of the school. He has taken part in many school activities, and his dramatic ability was magnificently portrayed as "Mike Turner" in the senior play "Two Gentlemen and Verona."

Possessing a deep, bass voice, he did a great deal toward helping the glee club, and was outstanding in his trio, quartet and mixed chorus work. The future is rather uncertain, although he plans to go to college. We are sure that whatever field "Ed" chooses, he will make an enviable record for himself.

BETTY JANE MILLER

July 29, 1929 "Bettie"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Cafeteria (3,4).

Betty is one of the few people who comply with the rule "Silence is golden." Not that she can't express herself when someone asks for her opinion. Yet she can listen to all the "hubbub" going on and formulate her own opinions, which is a very good thing.

For two years she has served as cashier in the cafeteria, and served quite capably at that. Her experience will come in handy in the future. The opposite sex is of no great interest to Betty at the present time, for her chief interest lies in reading. Playing the piano is another of her favorite activities.

Whenever there was work to be done, you could always depend on "Bettie" to "come through with the goods." Practically every morning before school, she could be found typing in Room 5.

Betty's ambition is to become a secretary, and we know she will succeed in her chosen profession.

WILLIAM JOSEPH MORRISON

November 30, 1929 "Morrison"

Quill & Scroll (4); T.C.N. (1,2,3,4); Associate Editor of T.C.N. (4); Glee Club (1,2,4); Senior Play (4); Patrol (1,2); Yearbook Staff (4); Class President (1,4).

For twelve years the Class of '37 has felt the magnetic presence of Morrison. His dark hair and flashing smile can be seen as he rushes about the school performing his many tasks, as Senior President, Associate Editor of T.C.N., member of Quill & Scroll, and Yearbook Staff.

Bill is quite a gifted artist, and is often called upon to display his talents. A wide field of activities hold Bill's interest. He finds enjoyment in everything from stamp collecting to a gay lively party, a fact which earned for him his title of class wit. Morrison is never without a witty reply, and does much to keep the classrooms and halls lively.

Bill plans to go to college after graduation to study journalism, the profession he has chosen as his career.

ALFRED ROY OVERLY

September 14, 1929 "Fred"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Track (3,4).

Ever see this tall, dark, wavy-haired lad whizz past you in his Dad's Plymouth? That's right! It's none other than that East Earl representative, better known to his classmates as Fred. If he isn't racing to school at the last second you can be assured he's taking a crowd of his numerous friends to a game, since he possesses a keen interest in all sports.

Making his debut at NHHS as a freshman, we often wonder how we endured those occasional monotonous periods without his witty remarks. However, on the serious side, "Fred" was always noted for a vivid memory, especially in history class, since this proved to be his most interesting subject. Nevertheless, he also asserted his abilities in all school activities. His leisure time is taken up by skating, hunting, and track.

In the crystal ball of the future we see a college career, which we sincerely hope he will attain. Goals are not always reached, but success is derived from attempting to attain them . . . so, Good Luck! "Fred!"

PARK JAMES RANCK

July 1, 1929 "Ranck"

Band (1,2,3,4); Orchestra (1,2); T.C.N. (2,3,4); Quill & Scroll (4); Quartet (3,4); Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Senior Play (4); Patrol (1,2); Yearbook Staff (4); Sports Manager (1).

Always the "spark plug" of our class, this gentleman has been with us since kindergarten days, and through these school years has held firmly to the title of "Romeo" Ranck. Seriously speaking, though, Ranck is a very conscientious student, participating in numerous extra-curricular activities aside from earning well-above-the-average marks in his studies.

All phases of sports have held his interest and during his latter high school years he has excelled as sports writer for both the T.C.N. and the New Holland Clarion. He was also president of Quill & Scroll in his senior year.

For recreation the "thumps" a mean set of drums. "Jitterbugging," too, is right down his alley. Although his plans for the future are as yet somewhat uncertain, they will no doubt include a college course in journalism.

CHESTER ALLEN REED

December 15, 1929 "Chet"

Salisbury: Glee Club (1,2,3); Band (2,3); Orchestra (2,3); Basketball (1,2,3); Baseball (2,3); Yearbook Staff (3); Play (1,2,3); Salisbury Highlights (2,3); Class President (1,2,3); New Holland: Glee Club (4); Band (4); Orchestra (4); Yearbook Staff (4); Track (4); Senior Play Prompter (4).

"Chet" comes from the small town of White Horse, and joined our class in his senior year. His friendly manner and kind attitude really are a big part of his outstanding personality. There is also plenty of attraction for the opposite sex, which explains why "Chet" is better known as the "Cassanova" of his class.

He is very studious and ambitious, and nary an honor roll has come out without Chester's name on it. The trumpet also takes up a lot of his time; the band couldn't get along without him. He is always ready to lend a helping hand, and he clearly displayed this quality as prompter for the senior play.

"Chet" looks forward to entering college in the fall. His great ambition is to become a business man some day. In any field he chooses, we're sure that success is written in the cards.

ROSLYN MARIE RODGERS

March 31, 1929 "Rodg"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Yearbook Staff (4).

Look who is a part of that group from Blue Ball! None other than that pretty brunette, with the pleasant smile and pleasing personality . . . Marie Rodgers. She came to us in her freshman year, and has gained much popularity. Marie is very studious, and her report card shows it.

"Rodg," her more familiar name to us, is often seen riding her bicycle on the streets of Blue Ball, or sitting on her front porch, giving a cherry "Hello" to her many friends passing by. Marie likes to drive very much, and you can occasionally see her in that black Oldsmobile.

Marie often works in her father's store, which is located in Blue Ball. She has been thinking seriously about becoming a hairdresser. Perhaps she will decide to change her career to that of housewife, but we know that whichever one of these professions she chooses she has the ability to handle either successfully.

JEANNE RUTH ROLAND

February 24, 1930 "Peaches"

Soccer (2,3,4); Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Patrol (1,2,4); Orchestra (1, Band (1); Basketball (1); Track (1).

Jeanne is one of the youngest members of the class, and she has been with us from the very first day of school. Her large brown eyes and pleasing little giggle have done much to brighten the past years.

Roland's job at the "Cut Rate" as official soda jerker, takes up most of her leisure hours, but she can also be found at most of the basketball games, adding her enthusiasm to the cheering section. It is also a known fact that Jeanne has a strong appeal for the opposite sex, which is proven by the number of admirers that always seem to be following her.

As a commercial student through high school, Jeanne would like to get an office job as a stenographer following graduation. Whatever you do Jeanne, just remember you have all the wishes your classmates can give to a well-liked, attractive, young lady.

PHYLLIS JEAN SCHNADER

January 23, 1930 "Phil"

Basketball (1,2,3,4); Soccer (1,2,3,4); Track (1,2,3,4); Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Senior Play (4); Patrol (1,4); T.C.N. Business Staff (4); G.A.A. (3,4); Yearbook Staff (4).

With two minutes remaining in the fourth quarter, the senior girls lead their opponents by a margin of four points. Will they gain a victory? Could anything else be possible with "Phil" out on the floor shooting one basket after another? You can be sure she keeps her guard moving rapidly in many attempts to stop this forward. A whizz on the soccer field . . . the goals mounted with Schnader for our center.

As the ever-present "Flo" in "Two Gentlemen and Verona," her skill in dramatics has been proven. Never will that merry laugh in yonder corner be forgotten, for nothing can be devised to conquer those giggles! Although Chemistry seems to baffle her at times, Schnader has rapidly conquered many obstacles in the "Parles-vous Francais" class. She is hankering to change to the spotless white uniform of the "Angel of Mercy," and she has many abilities that will prove assets in whatever she may do.

VINCENT GLENN SMITH

February 18, 1930 "Smitty"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Patrol (1,2,3); Band (1,2,3,4); Senior Play (4); Soccer (3,4); Baseball (2,3,4); Basketball 2,3,4); Vice President (3,4); Yearbook Staff (4).

Bud has been an active participant in sports all through his high school career. This isn't his only talent for he also handles a gusty alto in the band, and has been a class officer for the past two years.

'Smitty's" most memorable attribute is his wit, for even during the heaviest of lectures, he can be depended on for a sharp remark, to which many a pedagogue can accredit his or her gray hairs. As advertising manager of the Yearbook, "Smitty" brought out his serious side, and proved to be a capable handler of financial affairs. His trip to New Mexico with a Boy Scout group started "Bud" on public speaking, which gave rise to his interest in debating. This year he became a member of the school debating team, and has become an accomplished orator.

Glenn hopes to establish a career in forestry, and, with his athletic background, he should be a great success.

HAZEL ALBERTA STONE

July 23, 1929 "Stonie"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Soccer (1,4); Senior Play (4).

Being the "shortie" of our class has proven anything but an obstacle to this little miss. Hazel, who, by the way comes from Summitville, entered New Holland High School in her freshman year. During the following four terms, she has prepared for the business career, which she hopes to follow upon graduation.

She is noted by her classmates as being very neat in her dress and choice of clothes. She is the possessor of a very appealing giggle, and is the main attraction to the boys of Room 17. Art has remained the pet subject throughout Hazel's school days, for she holds decided talents in this field.

You will seldom hear "Stonie," for she is the quiet type, but it's a safe bet that through the years to come we'll be remembering that "little gal with the big smile" as one of the breaths of freshness which helped to make our school days go by much too quickly.

MARY ELIZABETH STORB

September 15, 1929 "Storb"

Soccer (1,2,3,4); Basketball (1,2,3,4); Basketball Captain (4); Track (1,2,3,4); Cheerleading (1,2,3,4); Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Band (1,2,3); Orchestra (1,2,3); Senior Play (4); G.A.A. (3,4); Quill & Scroll (4); T.C.N. (1,2,3,4); T.C.N. Editor (4).

A bundle of vitality, that's Mary, and, only five feet two! But don't ever make the mistake of "kidding" her about her height . . . she considers it a definite liability.

She is a top honor student, Editor of T.C.N., and a flashing forward on the girls' basketball squad. In her senior year she was presented the D.A.R. Good Cititzen Award. Mary participates in everything with an abounding amount of vigor. If you can't find her in Room 6 working on the school paper, try the auditorium, she might be practicing basketball, or maybe in the lower hall practicing with the senior cheerleading squad . . . or in Room 17 doing committee work . . . but most likely she is at the Cut Rate with "Russ" her favorite pastime.

Mary is a promising young student, who will be an asset to the nursing profession . . . her chosen career.

MARY JANET STROMAN

June 26, 1929 "Stroman"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4).

Janet is one of the most popular girls in the class. She was born and reared in Goodville, and joined our class in the ninth grade. Because of her personality and charm, "Stroman" has become very well liked throughout the school.

A blue "Olds" speeding down Main Street . . . everyone knows that car . . . of course, there goes "Stroman!" Janet has taken the commercial course in school, but secretarial work is not for her.

Whenever a joke is told, Stroman is usually right there! Always in for a good time, and a lot of fun . . . yes, that's our little "Goodville girl!" Dull moments are never heard of when "Stroman" is around. She is always the life of the party. One of her main interests also goes to the opposite sex.

Janet has no plans for the future as yet, but we are all sure that in whatever she does, the interest of the Class of '47 will follow her.

ANNABELLE LOIS USNER

May 23, 1929 "Usner"

Glee Club (1,2,3,4); Yearbook Staff (4).

This vivacious and energetic lass joined our class in its freshman year. For four years we have enjoyed her hearty laughter which resounded through our halls.

The great out-of-doors appeals to Usner far more than to most girls. When a good basketball game is going on you can be sure that she will be there to lead the team to victory. Annabelle's terriffic "wallop" did much to lead the senior girls to victory in their soccer games.

Usner says her chief desire is to become a private secretary but we also know that she will be a good wife to that "certain someone. Usner, and her pal, Julia, can be seen together on many of their varied excursions. Despite her many interests, she has maintained a high academic average through high school. Her pleasing personality, her wit and humor will carry her over the rough spots in life.

BETTY LOU WEAVER

January 24, 1930 "Weaver"

Soccer (1,2,3,4); Basketball (1,2,3); Glee Club (1,2.3,4); Track (1,2); Patrol (1); G.A.A. (3).

Experiencing her childhood debut in Bareville, this attractive brunette has been with us for the past twelve years, during which she has certainly not gone unnoticed. Wherever we find "Weaver" we are almost sure to find laughter and witty remarks. In addition to her jolly disposition, her willingness to participate in the numerous school activities has won her many friends, both in school and outside.

Reading, dancing, seeing movies and occasionally going to "Sprecher's" constitutes some of her sources for recreation. Of course, it is obvious that her interests also turn toward the "gentlemen," for she has numerous admirers.

Although Betty Lou is undecided about the future, we all know she will take happiness with her into whatever vocation she chooses.

CLAIR EUGENE WITWER

October 24, 1929 "Clair"

Glee Club (2,3,4); T.C.N., Business Staff (1); Yearbook Staff (4).

Upon entering ninth grade, our class found their number suddenly enlarged, one of the additions being our intelligent, dark-haired, brown-eyed Clair, who comes from Bowmansville. This jolly young man is always ready for fun, and is quite often the "life of the party," especially in chemistry class.

Ice-skating and roller-skating are the main hobbies of this energetic young man, and he can frequently be seen around "Shep's" in his leisure time. He enjoys all sports and is always ready to take part in a game at any time.

Clair is a very scholarly student, and constantly makes the first honor roll. Academically, he is one of the leading students of the class. He is our literary genius, and shares his talents by helping others.

The future is still undecided for Clair. Whether he will go on to college, or find some position has not yet been decided, but whatever he chooses, we feel that his schoolday-success will continue to follow him.

MELVIN MARTIN ZIMMERMAN

August 27, 1929 "Melvie"

Glee Club (3,4).

"Melvie," the boy with the dancing eyes, comes from the near-by town of Blue Ball. Through winter and spring he can be seen hitch-hiking to school, and always managing to "dig" a ride with someone.

Winter is the best season of the year, according to "Zimmie," for that means ice-skating is here. He is one of the many who visit the famous Bowmansville ice-skating pond.

Zimmerman has put his commercial knowledge to good use. For several years he has kept his father's books and aided him in his hardware business. Melvin's hobbies are reading and baseball. His Saturday nights are well occupied, for he can be found giving a good sales talk to his many customers.

When asked about his future plans, "Melvie" gives a definite answer, for he knows that he will be in the hardware business. We know that the future has much in store for Melvin.

Memories of Our Senior Year

We came into our senior year, September 1946, with a bang, having an enrollment of forty students, including four new classmates from Salisbury High. With Miss Elizabeth Troxel as our advisor, we started housekeeping in Room No. 17.

Our first and biggest undertaking of the year was our senior play, "Two Gentlemen and Verona," which was a big success, thanks to the hard work of the entire class and our advisors.

The coming of November saw eighty per cent of the male populace of the class venturing far into the fields enjoying the small game season.

The Christmas holidays rolled around, with their usual glorious celebrations and gifts, enjoyed by the entire class. New Year's Day found us celebrating in many different ways.

We all enjoyed the "big snow" which gave us an extra day of vacation from school, and it was spent in many different activities by the individual students.

Our class held the first Senior Prom ever held in our school on March 7. Here we danced to the music of Bob Lyter's Orchestra, and everyone had a wonderful time!

April 18 found us being entertained by the Juniors at the reception, which brought back memories of our Junior year, when we were the hosts to the Class of '46.

We took our senior trip May 15 and 16, when we went by Conestoga Traction Company bus to make a tour of our nation's Capitol.

May 29 brought us to our Commencement exercises, which wound up twelve years of hard work and fun in the halls and classrooms of New Holland High School.

Directress — Mrs. Harold Weber

Prompters and Understudies — Laverne Landis and Chester Reed

"Two Gentlemen and Verona," a three act comedy by Anne Ferring Weatherby, was presented by the class of 1947. The play was centered around Verona Wood, an actress and a member of "The Red Barn Players," who make their home at the boarding house of Mrs. Buxton. The players are none too successful and their finances are very low. The cast is about ready to disband when Charlie receives a letter from ROM Studios, stating that Mr. J. Sweezey, a movie scout, will visit their theatre. After considerable persuasion, the "Players" induce Neila to put up the money to keep the theatre going, but on her terms, which gives her the leading role for the play and excludes Verona from the cast.

Bill Kennedy, a dramatic critic on vacation, makes the mistake of stopping at the "Buxton Boarding House," and is mistaken for Mr. Sweezey, the talent scout. The girls all throw themselves at him, trying to impress him, and Mike scares him frightfully by entering the room with a gorilla suit on. Clyde Colby then shows his talent and Bill decides he has entered an asylum. Charlie, a boyhood pal of Bill's, saves the day and straightens everything out it seems, when in comes Mr. Sweezey, a hard-boiled man, who can see nothing good about life, and the trouble starts again. Neila tries to break up Verona's chance to display her talent, but Bill, who has grown very much in love with Verona, saves the day and ruins Neila's chance to show her talent, and all ends well.

"Two Gentlemen and Verona" offered all of the pace, action and sparkle that varied from chuckles to roars. These combined to make an evening of real humor.

The Class Will

We, the Class of 1947, in preparation for our approaching departure from our present phase of life, and being in full possession of all our faculties, do sanction and ordain this final class document, our will and testament.

ARTICLE I.—To the class of 1948 we bestow our most treasured possession, our class unity.

ARTICLE II.—To the faculty we leave our poise, dignity, and position of leadership among the underclassmen.

ARTICLE III.—To the following underclassmen we leave our personal characteristics and traits:

Mary Ellen Brendle's neatness in appearance to Ken Wilkinson.
Dorothy Brown's secretarial efficiency to next year's senior secretary.
Evelyn Diem's early dismissal to Lee Reese.
Richard Eaby's scientific genius to Jim Witman.
John Eby's bashfulness around the opposite sex to Pauline Myers.
Norma Lou Eby's splendid record of good health to any of our frequent absentees.
Pat Fritz's ability on the piano to Janet Sweigart.
Russ Gehman's "perfect man " build to Donald Detter.
Betty Hartman's vim and vigor to the Junior boys.
Ida Hepner's disregard of the opposite sex to Jean Parmer.
Emma Hess' home economic ability to Warner Frazier for use in the Cut Rate.
June Hillard's pleasing personality to Paul Weaver.
Arlene Horst's early morning library smile to next year's student librarian.
Julia Horst's Goodville bus franchise to the Horseshoe Line.
Rosene Howe, as baby of the class of '47, leaves her unspoiled position to Jimmy Krick, the baby of the Class of '48.
Betty Jacoby's beauty crown to next year's queen.
Brinton Keenan's height to . . . as you all have guessed . . . Ardell Gehman.
Norman Kochel's angelic class behaviour to Skip Reeser.
Richard Krick's five-o'clock-shadow to Davy Lee Yunginger.
James Lammey's state of oblivion to Gracie and Ginny.
Harold Landis' interest in the sophomore class to any sophomore boy who'll listen to reason.
Laverne Landis' twirling ability to Pat Musser.
Robert Mast's curly locks to George Bair.
Ed Mersky's high basketball scores to Glenn Martin.
Betty Miller's cafeteria job to Mildred Geigley.
Bill Morrison's infrequent compliments to Phyllis Brubaker.
Fred Overly's black wavy hair to Anna Bedi.
Park Ranck's wolfish instincts to Tommy Kurtz.
Chester Reed's constant mannerliness to Dot Sumner on duty at the door in the morning.
Marie Rodgers' patriotic love for Blue Ball to Franklin Townsley.
Jeanne Roland's love of food to Ethel Pringle.
Phil Schnader's explosive giggles to Richard Fizz.
Glenn Smith's sturdy build to Betty Martin.
Hazel Stone's sex appeal to Nancy Gilbert.
Mary Storb's ability to manage her man to Orpha Yoder.
Janet Stroman's romantic troubles to Mable Nelson.
Annabelle Usner's cheery disposition to Louise Kurtz.
Betty Lou Weaver's quick comments to Janie Clark.
Clair Witwer's private booth at Shep's to Jackie Bensinger.
Melvin Zimmerman's he-man treatment of the commercial class to any early applicant.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our name and set our seal this day of May, in the year of our Lord, one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.
